380/12 PUBLIC SPEAKING
a) The Chair welcomed everyone to the Meeting and reminded them that it was being recorded.

The Chair invited questions from the public.

John Morehen congratulated all concerned on the Remembrance Day parade, and remarked that the attendance of the Duke of Devonshire reflected well upon the progress being made in Staveley.

Marion Gerrard stated that there had been some difficulties with the organisation of the parade within the Garden of Remembrance. Councillors agreed to work closely with Joe Roberts and the Royal British Legion to ensure the smooth running of next year's event.

Peter Sawyer informed members that he was a member of the Heart of Staveley Project Board and asked members their opinion on the project.
